This Christmas Card 1963 edition of the GATEWAY is unique in that it was printed by the offset (lithography) method. The pictures on pages one and four are two-color duo-tones (red and black). The picture was printed twice in the same area with each color. The other pictures are done in the usual half-tone, one-color method.

The GATEWAY is normally printed by the letter-press process where type that has been set makes the direct impression on the paper. In offset, the type is photographed and put on a specially processed flat metal sheet. This is inked, and the image is transferred from the metal sheet to rubber rollers, and then onto the paper.

All Invited To Dance Sat. In SC Ballroom

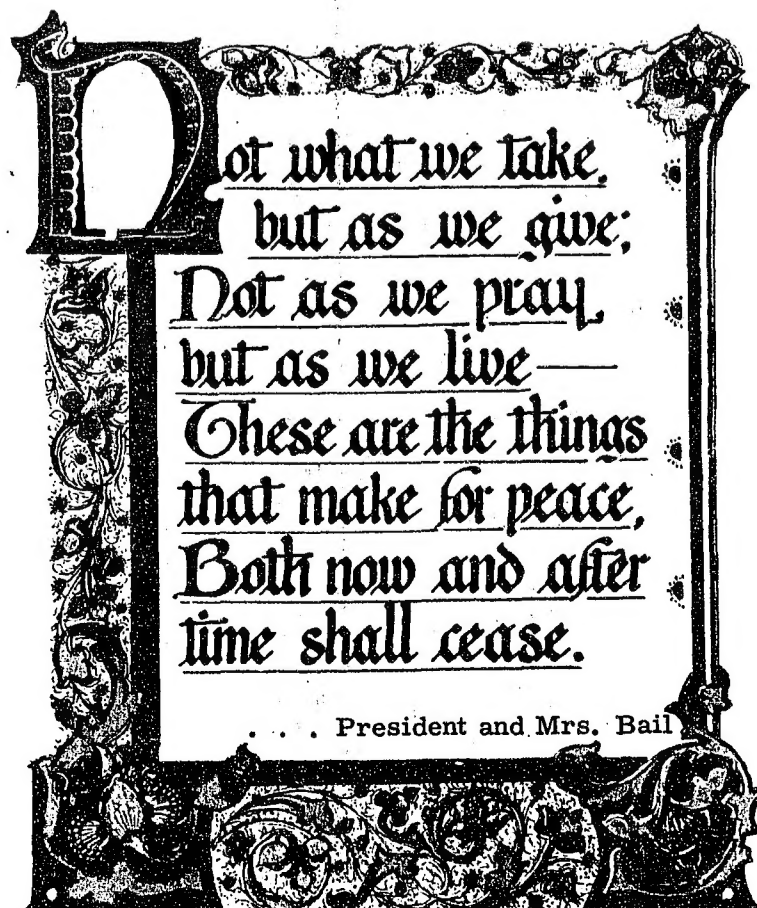

The annual All-School Christmas Dance will be held in the Student Center Ballroom Sat., Dec. 21, from 8 to midnight.

During the intermission students will gather to sing Christmas carols. Accompanying on the piano will be Judy Anderson.

The GATEWAY is published weekly by students of the Omaha University Department of Journalism. Editorial comment and signed letters to the editor are not necessarily representative opinions of the faculty, administration or student body.

AFROTC - Bootstrappers Add New Books To Library

by Dick Smith

The 470th AFROTC Detachment members and the bootstrappers on campus have begun to add books to the AFROTC library located in the administration building.

Lt. Col. E. P. Ratti, Professor of Air Science, said that funds to buy the books come from the welfare fund that results from profits of Base Exchanges.

He explained that "all members of the Armed Forces receive a share of the profits. The funds are dispersed by the major commands and in the case of a base are used to operate dayrooms, hobby shops and other recreational facilities."

Colonel Ratti explained that since the bootstrappers and the detachment members are active members of the Armed Forces they receive their part of the welfare fund and then put it to use buying books for the AFROTC library.

"The funds," he explained, "cannot be spent on just anything. A board must meet and make suggestions, then as approving authority he must decide if the items will be of use to all who have contributed to the fund."

"We receive about $1.25 per man here at the University and have bought several books for our library, athletic equipment and financed the bootstrappers coffee hours in the student center," he added.

In addition to the books purchased by the welfare fund the Air University supplies OU with a number of books related to Air Science classes.

Colonel Ratti said that "we have books pertaining to subjects studied by our cadets and bootstrappers and are of a specialized nature."

Among the books in the library are those dealing with geography, political science, international relations, leadership, management and military science.

He said that the library is open to all of the cadets and the bootstrappers.

Colonel Ratti said that "the amount of books is very small now but we hope to keep adding all of the time."

Program Instruction Will Help Students Raise Sagging Grades

A foundation necessary for the study of basic modern mathematics is utilized by Program Textbooks in four Omaha University math classes.

"The program instruction makes use of step by step operation," according to Assistant Professor Benjamin Stern, math department. Mr. Stern expects good results from the method if students work at it.

The student uses the program textbook by placing a sheet of paper or a card over the written material. Each page contains a set of frames which presents information and requires response. The student slides the sheet of paper down the page until three dots appear. This is a signal to read the material above.

The frame may call for a response which the student writes down on paper. Next the sheet is slid down to uncover the correct answer. If the student answer is not correct he must check to find why before going on to the next frame.

At the end of each set of frames (called units) a mastery test is taken. The students answers may be compared with those in the key at the end of the book.

Finally, the instructor will provide the student with a unit test to check if material was covered.

"The class period is spent emphasizing the important elements of the text and then used to correct difficulties," stated Associate Professor Harry L. Rice, Math department.

Mr. Stern and Mr. Rice use the program textbook in classes they instruct.

Students, by following the instructions for the program, can learn the subject matter of the book with a minimum of outside assistance. The students should study the program textbook about seven hours a week.

What are the results expected from the mathematics department? The students should have better grades, understand the nature of mathematics and be able to answer the question why.

Record Number Students Qualify For Distinction Degrees In June

The University Committee on Honors and Degrees With Distinction announced this week that 27 students have academically qualified to graduate with distinction in June.

"This by far is the largest number of students to qualify for this honor since the program went into effect in the early 1940's," said Committee Chairman Dr. W. C. B. Lambert.

Qualifications for a student to graduate with distinction include a 3.0 general average and a 3.4 average in his major field. The student also has to be nominated for the honor by his major advisor.

Meeting the academic requirements does not assure the students of graduating with distinction.

"We have two plans for the candidates to complete their requirements for this honor," said Dr. Lambert.

Plan A requires the candidate to take two three-hour exams which will be given in April. The first exam will cover the candidate's major field of study. The second will be an intensive exam within the candidate's more concentrated area of study within his major.

Plan B requires a thesis or a creative project to be submitted by the candidate. These will be judged by recognized experts not on the faculty of OU.

Candidates passing either Plan A or Plan B will then be required to take a one-hour oral exam. Candidates passing that test will be awarded their degrees with honor and distinction at the commencement in June.

With an eye to more stringent requirements in the future, Dr. Lambert revealed that his committee has just submitted a revamped program to the University Curriculum Committee for approval.

"We have spent 15 months reviewing honors programs of other universities and colleges," he said. "This new plan is designed to make a degree with distinction a much more coveted honor."

The following students have been nominated and have met the academic requirements:

Joyce Lueders, Dean Ullerich, accounting; Robert Austin, Naomi Klein, Antoinette Turnquist, Joyce Wilson, art; Guy Griffin, chemistry; James Bronowski, Wanda McCumber, civil engineering.

Virginia Lawton, English; Louis Rich, business administration; Mary Jane Horn, French; Evelyn Burnett, geography; Evette Abraham, Shirley Johnson, Margaret Taylor, Yvonne Tesar, home economics.

Mary Beth Meyers, Mary Jane Cooper, Georgina Rogers, journalism; Gwyn Kleiver, library science; Mary Knoll, Thomas Harvey, music; Dudley Kersey, psychology; Olon Zager, retailing; Arlene Grossman, speech; and Jan Meyers, speech therapy.

Others are Mark Hallgren, Pi Kappa Alpha; Dave Richardson, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Bob Siebler, Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Coolest Man is elected by couples at the dance. There is one vote per Greek card.

The Cimarrons will provide the music for dancing. A folk singing group, "The Cellar Dwellers" will entertain during intermission.

Social Chairman Jan Thompson is in charge.

Zeta Tau Alpha To Present 'Fantasy In Frost' Tonight

Zeta Tau Alpha will hold its annual "Fantasy In Frost" dance tonight from 9 to 12 midnight in the SC Ballroom.

This is an all-Greek dance and admission is one Greek card per couple.

During intermission, Zeta's Coolest Man will be announced. The candidates are: Wayne Backes, O Club; Bill Campbell, Theta Chi; Lloyd Cardwell, Delta Rho Gamma and Harry Dotson, Lambda Chi.

ISA Plays Santa To OU Parkers; Plan Parties, Dance For Future

Independent Student Association members met on campus at 5 a.m. this morning to put the Santa hoods on the 956 parking meters in all of the Omaha University parking lots.

According to ISA President Don Houghton, members began making the hoods in mid-November. In the past it has taken about an hour to hood all the meters, but due to the larger number of meters this year and the presence of snow, it took longer this morning.

At the completion of covering all the meters, members adjourned to the Town House for breakfast.

ISA is planning an ice skating party and chili supper in Jan. After an absence of two years the Sweetheart Prom will be held Feb. 1. The group recently took good used clothes and toys to the Indian reservation in Winnebago, Nebr.

Wed. between 5 and 6 p.m. the members had their Christmas dinner party in the S.C. cafeteria alcoves. Presents were given to the groups's sponsors, Miss Dorothy Patach and Mr. Rene Hlavac.

Other officers of the organization are Sec'y, Kathy Roberts and Treas., Sandy Kutschinski.

Alpha Xi Delta Arrange Busy Christmas Season

Members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority have planned a busy Christmas vacation. The activities began last Wed. with a party at the Omaha Women's club. It was given by the Alpha Xi Delta Alumni chapter and Santa was present.

This morning the sorority presented each faculty member with an "Apple Claus." The apples had Santa Claus hats and cloves for eyes. The Alpha Xi's give the apples to faculty members each year.

Monday evening is the annual Pledge Paddle party. The pledges make their own paddles and present them to their sorority Mothers at this time. The paddles range in size from two or three inches to the size of canoe oars. The get-together will be held at the home of Linda Anderson, 5207 N. 49th Ave.

A date party will be held Dec. 28th at the home of Candy and Claudia May, 6405 Country Squire Lane. Those in attendance will toboggan in the afternoon and dance at night.

Retha Riedenhour Is '64 TKE Sweetheart

Retha Riedenhour was announced the 1964 Tau Kappa Epsilon Sweetheart Saturday, Dec. 14th.

A Santa will also make an appearance during the course of the afternoon. Members of Chi Omega will bake cookies and make candy for the event.

Russ Clark loses 7-0 decision to Marvin Collier

Adams St., Northern Illinois Triumph Over OU Matmen

"We're going right out of the frying pan and into the fire," was wrestling coach Don Benning's statement after Tuesday's 29-2 loss to perennial powerhouse Adams State. "We were nervous and to top it off we were going against one of the best small college teams in the nation," commented Benning.

Adams State was "hot" as they won the first seven matches against the Indians. Jimmy Jones was the only Indian to garner points away from the Colorado school as he drew with Joe Lee in the Heavyweight class. In a exhibition 191-pound match Paul Cullen was decided by Paul VanDonselaar 5-2.

The "fire" Benning mentioned will be Morehead State of Minnesota. Benning said Morehead will be probably as tough as Adams State but that his matmen ought to be at full strength for the Jan. 10 meeting at Morehead.

Results:

123-lb.—Arlin Severson (Adams St.) pinned Tom Ostroff in 3:32.
130-lb.—Don Rice (Adams St.) decided Gerry Shook, 7-1.
137-lb.—John Perry (Adams St.) decided Phil Godute, 5-2.
147-lb.—Jim Deutsch (Adams St.) pinned Steve Christensen in 7:25.
157-lb.—Larry Wrede (Adams St.) defeated Rich Tomasek, 6-2.
167-lb.—Marvin Collier (Adams St.) decided Russ Clark, 7-0.
177-lb.—Frank Delce (Adams St.) pinned William Shepard in 2:33.
Heavyweight—Jim Jones (OU) drew with Joe Lee.

The matmen suffered their first defeat of the season as they lost a 18-14 decision to Northern Illinois at DeKalb, Ill., last Saturday.

The Indians had a 14-9 lead after five matches but lost the last three by decisions. Gerry Shook, a fall Cross Country product, won his second match in a row by a pin as he downed his opponent in 2:16 of the third period.

Results:

123-lb.—Richard Peckenpaugh (N.I.) pinned Tom Ostroff in 2:25.
130-lb.—Gerry Shook (OU) pinned Charles Andersen in 2:06.
137-lb.—Phil Goduto (OU) and Ken Cobb drew, 3-3.
147-lb.—Steve Christensen (OU) pinned Willie Haynes.
157-lb.—Rich Tomasek (OU) and Terry Weher drew, 0-0.
167-lb.—Norm Witterstrom (N.I.) decided Russ Clark, 8-4.
177-lb.—Wiel Schmidt (N.I.) decided Jerry Fuxa, 8-1.
Heavyweight—Neal MacDonald (N.I.) decided Jimmy Jones, 4-2.

Problems seem to be coming fast and furious for the new coach. The new mentor has had more than his share of troubles as his squad now has a 1-2 record.

These are just a few of his worries:

* Injuries to key men (Don Loftus, Jerry Fuxa and Carl West—hernia operation).

* A freshman dominated team (six of the eight varsity men are freshmen).

* The inability of captain Jim Fuxa to make his weight class in the last two matches.

Basketballers Roll To Impressive Record

OU's Fifth Victory; 22 For Kaster
As Demkowski 'Tones' Bobcats

Big Mike Demkowski, playing his best game of the young season, led the OU eagles to their fifth win to just one loss Tuesday at the Indian's camp. A second half surge carried Jim Borshiem's team to a 92-79 margin over the quintet from Peru State.

Cold Shooting

Both teams were running cold at the start of the contest and almost four minutes were gone before Sam Singleton dropped the first two-point shot for the Indians. Peru opened an 8-6 lead before Larry Villnow and Paul Kaster hit from the foul line to tie the score.

Demkowski leaped from the pack for two quick tap-ins and the Indians were on their way! All five OU eagles used their pressing defense to force the Peru team into continuous errors and then Kaster, Villnow, and Bernie Miller put the ball through the hoop with regularity to give the Indians a 38-30 lead at halftime.

10 of 14

Dazzling the fans as well as Peru, Demkowski scored 10 of the team's 14 points opening the second half. The Indians gapped a 16 point lead before the Peru five, led by subs John Alexander and Mike Harmon, started pulling up on the hot OU team.

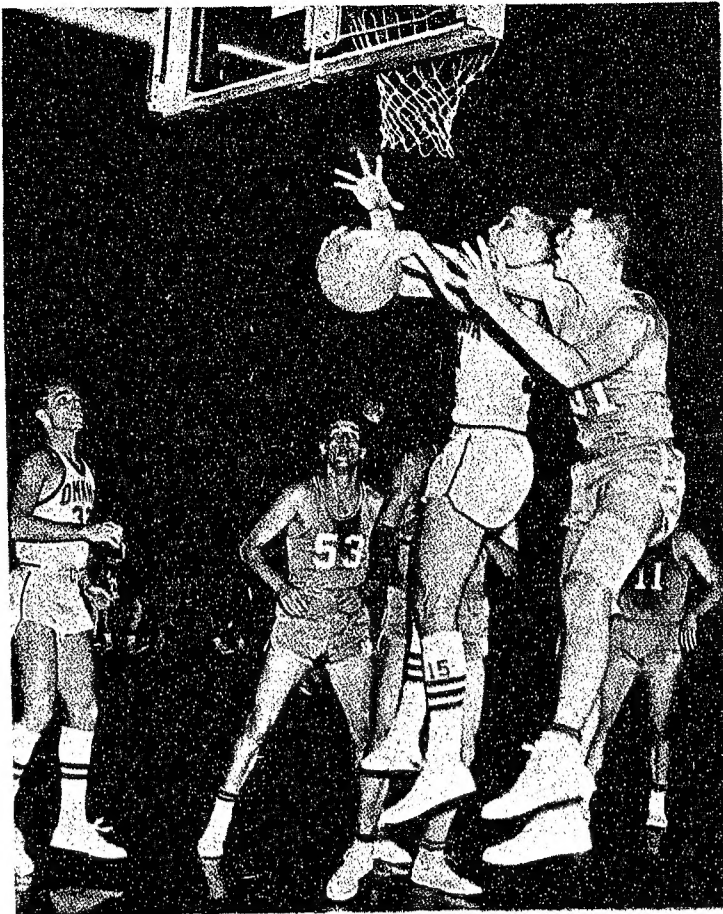

Peru's freshman center, Frank Empkey, started scoring in the later stages of the game, but with Miller and "Butch" Cribbs hitting from the outside and Demkowski continuing his torrid "inside" pace the Indians maintained their margin. The blue-and-white team from Peru started fouling in desperation but Kaster hit 8 for 10 from the foul line to put the frosting on the cake. Wendell Wiksell, ex-OU eager and high-scorer for Peru, was held scoreless by the fine defensive work of Charles Myers and the OU back-court aggregate.

Demkowski Has 27

The 27 points of Demkowski led the Indians and team captain Kaster chipped in with 22, Singleton and Miller both hit for 12. Villnow scored 10, Cribbs 6, and Myers scored 2 free throws and Marlin Briscoe 1. Empkey with 20 points and Harmon with 19 led the Peru contingent.

Crew On The Road Over School Holiday

It will be no vacation for the basketball team over the holidays as they face tough competition away from home in two scheduled games plus a tournament.

Last night the squad was in Kansas City for a test against tough Rockhurst college.

Hastings Tournament

The day after Christmas the team will be in Hastings, Nebraska, for a three day tournament with top area fives. Teams competing in the round robin type tourney are: Omaha, Hastings, Emporia, Mankato, Minn., Illinois Normal, Morningside, Southern South Dakota and Bethany College. Defending Hastings Tournament Champion, Emporia soundly defeated Pan American of Texas Tuesday night. Pan American is last years National NAIA champion.

On Jan. 3 the Hastings club will again play host to Omaha in a regularly scheduled game.

Ft. Hays

The next night on Jan. 4, Ft. Hays State will be trying to give OU its second CIC loss on the Hays floor. Hays has been noted thus far this year as a high scoring club with scores in the 100 point bracket against Nebraska schools, Kearney and Hastings.

Ernie Gorr, former OU track and cross country coach, is a member of the NAIA Track and Field Hall of Fame. He was installed in 1962.

Gorillas Defeat OU In CIC Hoop Opener

A cold shooting University of Omaha basketball team was handed its first loss of the season last Saturday at Pittsburg State. The Gorillas rode the hot hands of Jerry Holt and Paul Starks to an 89-73 CIC victory.

The game was the conference opener for both teams. Pittsburg is now 4-2. The loss dropped OU's record to 4-1 at that time.

The Indians fell 22 points down at 71-49 before cutting the Gorilla lead to 77-67 with a little over five minutes to go. Paul Kaster tossed in 21 points and Larry Villnow 14 to pace the Indian attack.

OU's leading scorer, Sam Singleton, was limited to six points and spent most of the night on the bench. Both Charley and Jim Myers went scoreless from the field.

The Gorillas had five players in double figures enroute to a commanding 54-37 lead at half-time.
